New England Roofing Company,

MANUFACTURERS OF
WARRENS' IMPROVED
Fire and Water Proof
Composition Roofs,
Office——7 Liberty Square, Boston

THIS Company would respectfully solicit the attention of Builders, Architects, Manufacturers, and the Public, to this much approved system of Roofing, which has been very generally adopted in the cities of Buffalo, Cincinnati, Chicago, and St. Louis, and within the past year in Boston and vicinity, where it has given entire satisfaction. It is rapidly superseding the use of all other kinds of Roof, and is confidently offered to the Public, as a mode of Roofing unobjectionable in every important particular.

The materials employed are none of them subject to corrosion or rust, like the metals, nor will they expand and contract with the changes of temperature, like tin and iron, nor shrink in dry weather, and swell in damp, like shingles, and other wood coverings.

It combines in a greater degree than any other Fire Proof Roof now in use, the valuable requisites of cheapness, durability, and security, against both Fire and Water.

These Roofs require an inclination of not more than one inch to the foot; leaving it in good condition for a promenade for drying purposes, and is of particular advantage to adjoining buildings in the event of Fire.

They are afforded at a much less price than any other Fire Proof Roof. The amount of material saved, and which would be used (by the old mode) in raising the walls, and framing a steep Roof, still further reduces the cost of the building.

Another advantage gained, is the securing of rooms in the Upper Story, of the same dimensions and quite as commodious, as those in the lower part of the building. The expense of a Three Story building, with this improvement, not being greater than that of a building of two stories with the pitched roof. There is a further saving in the cost of gutters.

These roofs are not affected by the jar of machinery—like those of Tin or Slate.

The Composition is so prepared that it is not affected by the extremes of heat or cold.

In case of injury from any cause whatever, no roof is so easily or quickly repaired.

Further information obtained by applying at either of the Company's Offices.

ANOTHER LARGE LOT OF PATENT SELF HEATING
SMOOTHING IRONS!

MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern implements; but females have been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them, in a very great degree, from the excessive and fatiguing labor of Ironing, besides being a great saving of time and expense. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor, and despatch—one cent's worth of dry charcoal supplies fuel for a whole day's constant ironing. Hard wood coal from the store will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Hatters' and Tailors' Irons are constructed upon the same principle, and possess equal superiority.

THE MARRIAGE OF LUCY STONE.—Rev. T. W. Higginson sends to the Worcester Spy the following:

It was my privilege to celebrate May-Day by officiating at a wedding, in a farm-house among the hills of West Brookfield. The bridegroom was a man of tried worth, a leader in the Western Anti-Slavery movement; and the bride was one whose fair fame is known throughout the nation—one whose rare intellectual qualities are excelled by the private beauty of her heart and life.

I never perform the marriage ceremony without a renewed sense of the iniquity of our present system of laws, in respect to marriage; a system by which "man and wife are one, and that one is the husband." It was with my hearty concurrence, therefore, that the following protest was read and signed, as a part of the nuptial ceremony, and I send it to you, that others may be induced to do likewise.

T. W. H.

PROTEST.

While we acknowledge our mutual affection, by publicly assuming the sacred relationship of husband and wife, yet in justice to ourselves and a great principle, we deem it a duty to declare that this act on our part implies no sanction of, nor promise of voluntary obedience to, such of the present laws of marriage, as to refuse to recognize the wife as an independent rational being, while they confer upon the husband an injurious and unnatural superiority, investing him with legal powers which no honorable man would exercise, and which no man should possess.

We protest especially against the laws which give to the husband—

1. The custody of his wife's person.

2. The exclusive control and guardianship of their children;

3. The sole ownership of her personal, and use of her real estate, unless previously settled upon her, or placed in the hands of trustees, as in the case of minors, lunatics and idiots;

4. The absolute right to the product of her industry;

5. Also against laws which give to the widower so much larger and more permanent an interest in the property of his deceased wife, than they give to the widow in that of her deceased husband.

6. Finally, against the whole system by which "the legal existence of the wife is suspended during marriage," so that in most States she neither has a legal part in choice of her residence, nor can she make a will, nor sue or be sued in her own name, nor inherit property.

We believe that personal independence and equal human rights can never be forfeited, except for crime; that marriage should be an equal and permanent partnership, and so recognized by law; that until it is so recognized, married partners should provide against the radical injustice of present laws, by every means in their power.

We believe that where domestic difficulties arise, no appeal should be made to legal tribunals under existing laws, but that all difficulties should be submitted to the equitable adjustment of arbitrators mutually chosen.

Thus reverencing law, we enter our earnest protest against rules and customs which are unworthy of the name, since they violate justice, the essence of law.

(Signed) HENRY B BLACKWELL,
LUCY STONE.

FETRIDGE & CO.'S NATIONAL LITERARY EMPORIUM, New York.—Messrs. Fetridge & Co., of this city, propose an extension of their business, on a scale which, it is said, will not have a parallel in this or any other country. They propose to open in New York an establishment which shall be the great national entrepot of standard literature—the head quarters of the production of mind, of every desirable kind, from the nursery tome up to the noblest effort of genius.

The requirements of the book trade are thought specially to demand such an establishment, the existence of which will materially facilitate the filling up of miscellaneous orders, a process at present attended with much delay and expense. Booksellers have now to distribute their orders among several houses before they can be filled; but, at the projected establishment every description of publication on the trade catalogues is to be furnished at once.

A capacious suit of warehouses are now in process of preparation in the mammoth building in Franklin square, Pearl street, New York, recently erected by the Harpers Brothers, the famous publishers, wherein, as we have stated, Messrs. Fetridge & Co. will commence business next month with a stock of books comprising all foreign literature, from which they will be prepared to supply orders from all parts of the United States, and from abroad, for every description of miscellaneous literary productions, home and foreign, popular standard works, magazines, reviews, and periodicals generally, at publishers' prices.

Messrs F. & Co. will fill all orders sent to the Messrs. Harpers for books not included in their catalogues; which detail in itself will include a large business—as we are informed, amounting, on an average, to as much as $60,000 per annum. Many orders are sent to Harpers Brothers for works not specified in their catalogues, which their more legitimate business engagements will not permit them to attend to; but through their arrangements with Messrs. Fetridge & Co., disappointments on this score will be obviated in future. This feature is one which booksellers residing at a distance from New York or Boston will fully appreciate, as, hereafter, they will be saved the trouble of multiplying their orders, and be also secured against the annoyances arising from unfulfilled commissions.—Boston Traveller.

[This great establishment was to be opened about the first of the present month.]

More Bounty Lands.

BY the Act of Congress passed March 3, 1855, all Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen who have served FOURTEEN DAYS in any war of the United States since 1775, are entitled to 160 acres of land, if they have not received it. Those who have received 40 or 80 acres, are now entitled to enough more to make up the 160. Those who have received 160 acres are not entitled to any more. The benefit of this Act extends to the widow and minor children of the soldier, but to no other heirs. Those who have been engaged in BATTLE are entitled to 160 acres, without regard to the period of their service.

Persons having claims under this or any other Act, will have them promptly attended to by calling on, or writing to, A. L. RICHARDSON & CO., 11 Railroad Exchange, Court Square, Boston, who pay cash for warrants.

N. B.—We have faithful and experienced agents in Washington, and we make no charge in any case, unless we obtain the land.

POST AND LIBERAL.—In a brief article on the merits of an eminent citizen named of the Presidency, and the principles laid down by him as his political chart, the New York Evening Post commends a particular feature of it, which embodies the only wise, safe, and practical rule on the subject of the disturbing element of our Union. It is as follows: "His chief recommendation is his common sense policy on the slavery question—a policy which is truly national, and the only one on which the people of this country, North and South, can permanently unite—the policy of toleration."

We extract the foregoing from the National Intelligencer. The "eminent citizen" alluded to is Gen. Sam Houston, and it is somewhat singular that the New York Evening Post, which has made very strong anti-slavery pretensions, should be found recommending the same platform of principles which is endorsed by the Intelligencer. The "policy of toleration" which the Post says is the chief recommendation of Houston to the Presidency, as understood at the South, embraces precisely what the people of the North have been moving so strongly and unitedly to resist, viz: the legalization of slavery in Kansas; and is a doctrine which the anti-slavery sentiment of the country can never agree to. Kansas was once free territory—secured to freedom, as we all thought by a common ordinance and compact between the North and the South. Treacherous hands have broken that compact, and thrown open the vast expanse of those new territories to the curse and the blight of slavery. The people of the North beheld the outrage with indignation—they saw the danger which these continued encroachments threatened to the liberties of the whole country—and they perceived that the time had come to make a stand against them, if they ever hoped to make freedom and not slavery the ruling principle in this Republic. With this view, all the love of liberty and patriotism of the North was aroused, to restore freedom to these violated territories,—to settle them with freemen, if possible—to say at least to the South, that slave States should never be admitted to the Union from those regions once consecrated to freedom, nor, in view of her violated compacts, from any other of our territories, north or south. This was and is the sentiment of the North—created by the recent necessity of resisting the power of slavery, which now threatens the entire overthrow of freedom in this country.

But the people of the North should become aroused to the insidious attempt now making to obtain support for a Southern candidate for the Presidency who, although professing moderation in his support of slavery, yet distinctly defends the institution, and unreservedly stands upon a platform which would permit Kansas to come into the Union as a slave state, and compel his supporters to acquiesce in the wrong and the outrage which had been perpetrated.—It is another compromise with the slave power, by which it is to be permitted to retain what it has thus wrongfully acquired, and pave the way for acquiescence in all future aggressions. Are the people of the North prepared for this? Is the "American" party in the North prepared thus to be made the instrument and the tool of slaveholders, in their attempts to distract the friends of freedom, and if possible to render abortive the zeal and energy with which the opponents of the Nebraska outrage have determined to rectify that wrong, or at least to prevent slavery from reaping the benefit of it? We believe not. We believe the people are not willing to be diverted by any other issues from the imminent dangers which environ the Republic from the advancing strides of the slavocracy.

STEAMER FROM PORTLAND TO NEW YORK.—It is stated by the Portland State of Maine that the steamer "Ocean Bird," so much talked of, is in a fair way of speedy completion, and is at once to be placed on the route between Portland and New York. She is to be as good a specimen of naval architecture as there is on the water. She is of 1900 tons burthen, and is expected to sail 20 miles an hour. John Grasham, the builder is using every exertion for her speedy completion, and it is hoped that about the 1st of June she will take her place on the route.

The propeller Eastern State has recently been sold by her owner, Capt. R. F. Loper, to a company of gentlemen who intend to run her between Boston and Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, as the pioneer of a line the establishment of which is one of the results of the new reciprocal treaty. The Eastern State sold for $55,-600, and is receiving a complete overhauling preparatory to starting for Boston.

ORGANIZATIONS AGAINST FREEDOM IN KANSAS.—Recent Southern papers state that there are pro-slavery clubs forming from Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and Mississippi, in which States an army of one hundred thousand electors aided by a fund of a million of dollars, will soon be raised, in order to head off free-soil settlers of Kansas.

ANTI-SLAVERY AT THE SOUTH.—One of our exchanges states that a religious sect exists in the Southern States, called the United Brethren in Christ, who make non-slaveholding a test of communion. They number seventy thousand communicants, and have churches in Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, and other slave States.

The Portsmouth Journal says that Mr Cotton Garland of Newington has this spring eighteen ewe lambs from nine sheep, all living—This is rather remarkable. He has for several years kept no sheep except ewes, which accounts for the regular [illegible], but not for all being ewes.

It is stated that Judge Campbell peremptorily declines the appointment to one of the Judgeships of the new Court of Claims.

A VERY SMALL BEER BUSINESS.—The Journal of yesterday has the following paragraph:

We understand that the City Authorities have given notice that from and after to-day, they shall proceed against the manufacture and vending of small beer in accordance with the statute. This is right. Let the whole law be executed, and not spare one of the deleterious compounds that are sold and swashed down by the community. Of all small business the manufacturing of small beer is the smallest. The weak, sloppy stuff does not rise to the dignity of exhilaration, and is not worthy to be named with the better qualities of ale and cider. It possesses not a single virtue, and its only effect is to demoralize the stomach and breed distempers, and if it be proper to suppress any deleterious, contemptible beverage, small beer should be among the first to come under the ban.

The Journal has had considerable to say about suppressing the sale of small beer—conveying the idea that the article is included in the prohibitions of the Maine Law—its object very plainly being to excite disgust against the law, and to render it unpopular if possible. This manner of proceeding is quite consistent with the well-known proclivities of the paper, but is not so consistent with the pretensions of friendship for the law, which it sometimes makes. The pretensions are seen, however, to be a transparent humbug, as its real and intense opposition is every day leaking out in such contemptible forms as these small beer paragraphs. It has a right, however, to oppose the law, and perhaps to do it, in the manner most agreeable to its instincts; but it has no right to make deliberately false statements like the above, to go abroad where the paper is not well known, and thus to create an effect against the Maine Law in other States which the strongest opposition of that paper could not produce at home.

It is unnecessary for us to say that the city authorities have given no such notice as that "understood" by the Journal, and have never had any intention or right of doing so, inasmuch as the article of small beer is not intoxicating, and does not come at all within the intentions of the statute. It may be too weak and "undignified" for the stomachs and appetites of some people, to be sure—but when properly made, and drank in moderate quantities, it is nevertheless a palatable and healthful beverage—incomparably more innocent than the poisonously drugged compounds which go under the names of strong beer and ale, but in comparison with which the Journal thinks it is not worthy to be named. "Our associate" of the "sharp quill" takes up a very small beer line of business.

Varieties.

A late Halifax paper states that the most frightful distress exists along the coast between Miramichi and Shippegan. The Canadian French are suffering direful privations, and have no seed whatever to sow or plant this season.

A young Italian boy—pious and of great promise—is now being educated at the expense of a Sabbath school in Chillicothe, Ohio, with the purpose of sending him out as a Methodist missionary.

A convention of Christianized Jews is to be held in New York city this month. It is said that a prominent matter to be brought before the convention is the consideration of the return of the Jewish people to Palestine, and take measures to co-operate with Jews in England (who have already moved in the matter) and other parts of the Eastern world.

A Precious Speech. The Rev Leander Ker made a speech in Platte City, Mo., just before the election, advising the lambs of his flock to march into Kansas, and shoot down the New England men.

A Walking Bible. Father Shehane, an old Universalist preacher in Alabama, is called by the people "the walking Bible." In a country court it was discovered on a certain occasion that there was no bible in the court house to swear the jurors upon. The Judge casting his eyes on the venerable preacher, said—"There's Shehane, he has the Bible in his head, they can lay their hands on him, and that will answer every purpose."

Behavior at Auction. Never nod to an acquaintance at an auction. We did so once, and, when the sale closed we found four broken chairs, six cracked flower-pots, and a knock kneed bedstead knocked down to us. What we intended as nods to our friends, had been taken by the auctioneer as bids for the kitchen furniture.

Through the whole of our authorized version of the Bible "its" does not once occur, the work which it now performs being accomplished by "his" or "her" applied as freely to inanimate things as to persons, or else by "thereof" or "of it." Trench remarks that "its" occurs but three times in all Shakespeare, and he doubts whether it is in Paradise lost.

POLICE COURT, May 7th.—Mrs. Mary Casey, convicted of selling spirituous liquor contrary to law, was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs, and be imprisoned 30 days in the County Jail. She was committed. The premises of the said Mary were searched, and spirituous liquor found. Case not tried.

John Gallagher, for having in his possession intoxicating liquor intended for unlawful sale, was fined $10 and costs, and sentenced to the House of Correction for 30 days. Committed.

James Wood, for drunkenness, was sentenced to pay a fine and cost amounting to $5. Paid.

Jeremiah Slane, for a similar offence, was sent to Jail for 30 days.

AT the trial of the various fire engines yesterday, the machines were very satisfactorily handled, although there was no trial of strength between them. They appear to be generally in good condition for service.

The new hall and other rooms of Eagle Co. No. 3, were opened to the public, and visited by a large number of ladies and gentlemen, who expressed themselves highly gratified at the neatness, elegance and taste of all the arrangements.

On Wednesday, as the Rev. Charles H. Halsey, Rector of Christ Church, New York, and one of the most exemplary and respected clergymen, was inspecting the work on the new edifice in course of erection for him, he fell through an open window space to the ground, a distance of some sixty feet, and died in about half an hour.

We happen to know that Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pills are good medicines, and shall proclaim it because we do know it. We conscientiously believe there is a vast amount of relief from suffering for our afflicted fellow men wrapped up in those skillful preparations, and we shall continue our little influence to make them known to those who need them.—Philadelphia Sunday Times.

TRANSPORTATION OF CONVICTS BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT. The plan worked admirably, and resulted in the permanent reformation of many convicts. At length, however, an opposition to the reception of convicts under any circumstances grew up among the colonies. The gold discoveries, too, came in as an auxiliary to this opposition, and in 1852 transportation to Tasmania in New South Wales was definitely abandoned. There still remains, however one small colony on the western part of Australia, known as the Swan River Colony, which has a population of some ten thousand, who gladly consent to receive convicts, and consequently the released prisoners are now being regularly sent there, at the rate of about a thousand a year, and becoming good farm servants and workmen, have done much to build up and increase the prospects of the settlement. As has been stated, about one thousand convicts are annually absorbed in this colony; but there still remains fifteen hundred unexposed of, and these the British Government has resolved to release in Great Britain, with licenses, or tickets of leave, revocable in case of misconduct. To occasion a forfeiture of these licences, it is not necessary that the holder should be convicted of any new offence. If he associates with notoriously bad characters, leads an idle and dissolute life, or gives any reason for the belief that he is about to relapse into crime, he is liable to be at once apprehended and remanded to confinement.

Before the prisoner is released, the chaplain of the jail usually takes measures to procure employment for him, so that on leaving the prison he steps at once into some steady occupation—He receives a good suit of clothes, a small sum of money and is forwarded to his destination. Up to the 15th of July last, licenses of leave have been granted to 1167 male and to 48 female convicts, and only nine have been revoked. It is however, impossible as yet to form any reliable conclusion as to the success of the experiment.

If it has the effect only in a partial degree of transforming hardened criminals into sober, responsible and virtuous citizens, the government may not, after all, have cause to regret that the practice of transporting convicts to Van Dieman's Land and New South Wales has been discontinued.—Edinburgh Review.

THE CROPS. We have already published encouraging accounts of the growing crops, from the South and West. Our exchanges continue to bring similar accounts from their respective regions of country. The Nashville (Tenn.) Banner, announces that the fruit crop in that county was never more promising than at the present time. Peaches and strawberries are particularly promising, the latter being already nearly ready for use. The famine prices of everything eatable, which have prevailed during the past year, have had the effect to wake up farmers to more extended cultivation of the soil; and in the grain growing regions of the West particularly, great efforts are said to have been put forth to produce a large crop. And to the success of their efforts, the deep snows of the past winter have materially contributed, the winter grain having been carefully covered and preserved from the frost during the cold season, and brought forth this spring in the best condition, so that with the ordinary smiles of Providence, considerably more than an average crop of grain may be reasonably expected. Thus, with the diminution of our exports and the spirit of carefulness in trade and of economy in families, may secure to our people—the laboring and poorer classes especially—during the approaching year, a season of less anxiety and suffering than has been their lot to endure the past year.—Boston Traveller.

FIRE AT ST. ANDREWS. About 4 o'clock on Sunday morning last a fire broke out in the store at St. Andrews occupied by Messrs H. Storr & Co., and in a short time the building was consumed. The upper rooms were occupied by Mr. Andrews, as a Barrister's office. The store adjoining, in the same building, was occupied by Mr. Edward Stinson as a confectionary. The flames spread to the house occupied by Mr. Fauls as a dwelling house, and Mr. Dales as a tailoring establishment, which was also destroyed, and Bradford's Hotel had a narrow escape. The Standard says:

The houses burned were owned by Mr. Michael Fauls, and insured for £700. Messrs. Storr & Co., lost all their goods, valued at £2 000, they were partly insured. Mr. Stinson lost about £70—no insurance. Mr. Andrews' law library, papers &c., valued at upwards of £400, were totally consumed and were not insured, his loss will be the greatest.

MR. EDITOR: Are the ladies of Bangor aware of how much they are losing by not giving their attendance upon the able and interesting course of lectures on Physiology now being delivered in this city by Mrs Johnson of New York? Or are our people already so well informed on the Laws of Health, (many of which are daily violated by the most intelligent classes everywhere), that they need no further instruction on a subject which so nearly concerns the comfort, happiness, usefulness, and life, even, of every human being? We are informed by one who is a member of Mrs J's class that this lady is, by an agreeable, accessible manner and thorough acquaintance with the subject, eminently qualified to give entire satisfaction to those who avail themselves of this rare opportunity of becoming acquainted with a subject of so much importance,—while only about fifty ladies are found in this city who as yet attend this course of lectures. This ought not so to be.

SHIPBUILDERS BANK.—MEETING OF BILL-HOLDERS. The resolutions presented by the chairman of the meeting Mr Littlefield, and ordered to be published in this paper, have been received, and will be found below.

Resolved, That in our opinion, there should have been a business-like and searching investigation of the affairs of the Shipbuilders Bank, by its President and Directors when it was found they could not redeem their bills without extraordinary effort.

Resolved, That the President and Directors have, in the opinion of this meeting, shown to the bill-holders and to the public generally, an inefficiency wholly unworthy of their trusts in their investigation of the affairs of the Shipbuilders Bank.

Resolved, That they, in our opinion, by their inefficiency, incapacity, or to cover and screen the person, or persons, have become themselves highly censurable, or at least of assenting to, or compounding with the party, or parties, in the insolvency of the said Shipbuilders Bank, to our great injury and loss.

Resolved, That we as a meeting will by all just and honorable means endeavor to bring to justice the party or parties that have so recklessly invaded and trodden on our rights, by the over-issue or putting into circulation paper called the Shipbuilders Bank Bills, now of little value.—Rockland Reporter.

Visit of the Emperor and Empress to England.

The Court Circular has the following account of the reception of their Majesties by Queen Victoria:

Their Imperial Majesties the Emperor and Empress of the French arrived at 7 o'clock this evening at the Castle, alighting at the Grand Hall, where the Queen, accompanied by the Prince of Wales, the Princess Royal, the Duke of Cambridge, and the Prince of Leiningen, received her illustrious guests.

A guard of honor of the 94th Regiment, with their band, was on duty in the Quadrangle, and paid the usual honors on the arrival of the royal cortege, the band playing "Partant pour la Syrie."

The Yeomen of the Guard lined the Grand Hall and Staircase, under the command of Captain Macdonald, the Exon in Waiting—Viscount Sydney, the Captain, and Colonel Fitzmaurice, the Adjutant of the corps, also attended.

The great officers of state and household (in levee dress), and the ladies and maids of honor in waiting, were in attendance with the Queen at the Grand Hall. Viscount Palmerston, First Lord of the Treasury, and the Earl of Clarendon, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, were also present.

The Queen, taking the arm of the Emperor, and the Empress that of Prince Albert, followed by the Prince of Wales, the Princess Royal, the Duke of Cambridge, and the Prince of Leiningen, passed up the grand staircase, through the Music room, into the Throne room, where the younger members of the Royal family were assembled, and subsequently proceeded to the Reception room, where the ladies and gentlemen of the household of the Queen and the Prince were presented to their Imperial Majesties.

The Emperor and Empress then presented to the Queen and Prince Albert, the ladies and gentlemen of their suite.

After the presentation of the respective courts, at which Viscount Palmerston and the Earl of Clarendon, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, were present, the Imperial and Royal personages proceeded to their private apartments.

Her Majesty gave a dinner in the evening in St. George's Hall. The company included their Imperial Majesties the Emperor and Empress of the French, the Duchess of Kent, the Duke of Cambridge, and many other dignitaries.

On Tuesday, in the morning, the Emperor and Empress, in company with the Queen and Prince Albert, took exercise on foot, walking on the slopes, and the Emperor visited the dairy and model farms at Windsor.

Shortly before three o'clock, the Mayor and Town Council of Windsor proceeded, in nine carriages, to the Castle, in their official robes, to present an address of congratulation to the Emperor.

His Majesty was pleased to reply:—

"Mr. Mayor. I am very much pleased with the statements contained in your address, and I trust that the alliance so happily formed will last for many, many years. I thank you for the hearty reception I have met with in your town, but I am sure I cannot take it to myself so much as to the circumstance of my being the guest of your Queen. I was much gratified by what I witnessed last night in your town, and I beg that you will express to the inhabitants of Windsor how highly pleased I was with their kindness and attention."

A review of the Household troops, in the Great Park, commenced at 4 o'clock, and lasted two hours. An immense crowd of spectators was present. The Emperor received deputations from London, and appointed Thursday as the day of the visit to that city.

The ceremonies of the day concluded with a grand ball in St. George's Hall.

On Wednesday the Queen held a chapter of the Order of the Garter, in the Castle at Windsor, for the purpose of investing his Imperial Majesty, the Emperor of the French, with the insignia of this most noble order. The ceremony commenced by the Chancellor, reading a new statute by command of the Queen, dispensing with the existing statutes of the order of the Garter, in so far as required for the special purpose therein mentioned, and ordained, and declaring that his Imperial Majesty Napoleon the Third, Emperor of the French, be declared a Knight of this order, any statute, decree, rule, or usage, to the contrary notwithstanding. The Queen announced to the Emperor of the French, that his Imperial Majesty had been elected a Knight of the most noble order of the Garter. The Garter King at Arms, kneeling, presented the Garter to the Sovereign, and Her Majesty, assisted by Prince Albert, buckled it on the left leg of the Emperor, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition.—Garter King of Arms presented the Riband with the George, and the Queen put the same over the left shoulder of the Emperor, the Chancellor pronouncing the admonition.

The Queen gave a state dinner in the evening, at which all the gentlemen appeared in uniform or Court dress, the members of orders of knighthood wearing their respective ensigns.

WOMEN AMONG THE MORMONS.—A letter writer, dating from Salt Lake City, Feb 28th, says:

The Mormons, after their passions, (or, as they call it, their holy desires to people the earth,) are gratified, seldom pretend to support their numerous wives. Brigham Young declared last conference that he did not know how many wives he had. "Tell the Gentiles," said he, "that I do not know half of them when I see them." The majority of these poor women are compelled to work for their daily bread, and many are in such a destitute condition that they are forced to seek the charity of strangers. It is an actual fact that one of the wives of the chief of the Apostles gains her livelihood by washing for the boarders of a public house in town. Indeed it is nothing uncommon for these lords of creation to send out in the canons for wood, and any day you can see women chopping logs and driving cattle to the mountains.

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE

Steamship Asia, AT HALIFAX.

Sebastopol not yet taken!

Another sanguinary Battle!

Total Failure of the Vienna Conferences!!

HALIFAX, Telegraph Office, May 7th, 1855.

The royal mail steamship Asia, from Liverpool, Saturday, April 28th, arrived at this port this evening at 9½ o'clock, having made the passage in less than nine days and a half. She brings two days later news than that received by the Atlantic at New York.

The steamship Hermann left Havre via Cowes for New York, on the 25th.

The steamship Union arrived at Southampton the same day.

Sebastopol.

The general tone of opinion in England is, that the war must continue for a lengthy period.

The policy of the Czar Alexander, is spoken of by the London Times, as a new and more pacific policy, and is so regarded throughout Europe.

It is difficult to form an estimate of the real progress of the siege. A comparison of various accounts, produces the impression that the fire of the Allies is superior to that of the City, but the enemy returns the fire steadily.

The Independent of Brussels, has received from Vienna, an alleged dispatch from the Crimea that the Allies have suspended the bombardment. It is not stated on what day the [illegible]. But the Independent believes that the date of the dispatch is posterior to that of the last official intelligence, viz: to April 22. Details say that to the morning of the 18th the bombardment and cannonade had continued day and night, since day break of the 9th, each of 500 guns, firing 120 rounds daily. The enemy's fire is not much reduced, although Mamelon is silenced, and some of the Round Tower guns are dismounted. Yet the Redan and Garden Batteries still keep up a heavy fire. There is no sign of an immediate assault.

During the night of the 14th, the French destroyed a Russian Rifle ambuscade, in front of Malakoff Tower. A terrible battle between a Russian sortie and the French raged during the night. Perhaps this is the most sanguinary since the battle of Inkermann.

April 17. A despatch to the French government, says the fire of the French batteries maintains its superiority.

The French have taken the Russian ambuscades in front of the Malakoff Tower, and have added them to the French lines. They have also found a ravine which runs along the fortifications of the city, where the Russians formerly kept their reserves. They have also sprung a mine before the Flagstaff Battery at a distance of fifty metres, thereby opening a new parallel which has been successfully joined to the others.

From the 12th to the 14th the French loss was only 355.

The situation of affairs was considered satisfactory to the French.

April 19th. The French minister of war learns that the besiegers were still advancing, and were consolidating their position.

On the night of the 18th the Russians made a strong sortie, but were promptly repulsed.

Prince Gortschakoff's account of the same date, says: "The besiegers' fire on the 16th, 17th and 18th, was less violent. Our batteries replied successfully. On the night of the 16th one of our battalions made a sortie to destroy the enemy's most advanced works. Our object was fully attained. Moreover, the loss of the garrison the past few days has been less.

LATEST.—22d. Gortschakoff states that after twelve days' bombardment, the Allied fire had become weak and caused but little damage.

The telegraph is now completed from London to the Crimea, except a few miles between Bucharest and Ruschuk, but the British Government keeps the exclusive use of it.

Grand Dukes Michael and Nicholas have again set out for the Crimea.

Menschikoff is not dead.

The St. Petersburgh Journal published an imperial rescript expressing the Emperor's satisfaction, hoping Menschikoff's health would soon be restored, and bestowing on him and his descendants a palace at St. Petersburgh.

Mehemet Ali, the sultan's brother-in-law was arrested and sent to Sinope, on a charge of being troublesome.

Baltic.

The blockade of Liban is announced, from the 17th, and of all ports to the entrance of the Riga, from the 19th of April.

Britain.

In Parliament much energetic questioning of Ministers had taken place, on various subjects respecting the war. The scope of all the questions being to hasten matters.

Sir Geo. Grey stated that authority was given to the Governor of American Provinces to enlist men for the regular army; not for Foreign Legions, inasmuch as all colonists were British subjects.

Roebuck's committee continued in session.—The duke of Newcastle had been examined. His evidence tends to exculpate himself.

Notices are given of a motion for a decimal coinage, and to invite Congress to establish a uniform decimal system throughout the [illegible]

Some notice is excited by the report that an American squadron is to make a demonstration against Cuba. It is admitted that a war between the United States and Spain would much complicate the present European politics.

France.

It is still reported, but is doubted, that Napoleon will command the Allied armies. It is officially announced that his departure for the Crimea is postponed for a short time.

The late Minister Ducos has been buried at the expense of the State.

General Forey is appointed commandant of Oran in Algeria.

The clipper ship Great Republic is taken by the French government for conveying troops to the Crimea.

Belgium.

The new Minister has declared his intention to adhere to principles of free trade.

Marshal Santa Cruz, Bolivian Envoy, has taken leave of the King.

Spain.

Some advantages are granted to foreign imports. Trade and Consular forms are simplified.

Italy.

A difficulty has arisen between Sardinia and Naples respecting a suit at law.

The Exequatur of Napoleon's Consulate at Genoa is withdrawn.

The Sardinian ministry has resigned—cause unknown.

Gen. Durando undertakes the formation of a new government.

The English steamship Croesus from Genoa for the Crimea with Sardinian troops was burned—passengers saved.

Prussia and Austria.

Berlin Correspondence says it hardly admits of doubt that an approximation of views has recently taken place between the Austrian and Prussian governments which bodes no good to the cause of the Western powers.

Baron Hess, with his whole staff would go to Gallicia on the 2d of May, but probably only to review the army. He is reported to have stated that the Austrian Army under no circumstances could be ready to take the field before August.

India and China.

Dates by the overland mail and telegraph, from Shanghae, to March 9th, and Bombay, to April 3d, are received.

Persia openly avows her adhesion to Russia.

The Chinese insurgents have evacuated Shanghae and Canton.

The Russian Frigate, Diana, was lost near Japan.

The Living Age was wrecked on the Prabra.

The ratification of the American treaty with Japan, was concluded at Simoda, February 1st.

Liverpool Markets.

SATURDAY, April 28.

BREADSTUFFS. Bigland, Athya, and other firms, report market excited, particularly for Indian corn. Advance 3s, and quoted white 45s 6d a 46s; mixed 46s 6d; yellow 43s 6d a 47s. Buyers resisted further advance and the market closed firm.

Flour 18d a 2s dearer, with a healthy business. American in small compass, held western canal new 38s a 40s, old 41s a 42s; Ohio 43s a 46s.

Wheat inactive. Demand rose 5d to 6d; white wheat 11s 9d a 12s 4d; red 10s 6d a 11s 4d; closing steady.

PROVISIONS. Richardson, Spence & Co., report sales of beef trifling. Pork also of a few sale. Less anxiety to force business.

Latest.

Nothing from the Crimea later than the 19th of April, British and Russian to the 22.

The French expedition postponed, they say, till the 10th or 15th.

Vienna Conference.

The steamship Hermann took out news of the total failure of the Vienna Conference. Since then there have been supplementary meetings or pour parlers without result.

The Plenipotentiaries assembled on Monday P. M. the 23d, and signed a Protocol of the 12th or last Conference. The meeting—it was agreed, should not be considered a thirteenth conference. A meeting of the representatives of the four Powers was held on Thursday the 26th, at the request of Prince Gortschakoff, when some further inadmissible propositions were made by the Russian Plenipotentiary and rejected on the part of England, France and Turkey.

Lord John Russell had left. Previous to his departure from Vienna he had a private interview of two hours with Count Buol. Drouyn de l'Huys. Departure is postponed for a few days to discuss matters with the Austrian government. One report says he had left.

Railroad Bridge Burned—Disastery and Suffering at Sea.

NEW YORK, May 7.

Hunt's bridge, on the Harlem Railroad, near Brooklyn, was destroyed by fire last night, but no interruption takes place to passenger travel. The bridge was a single span of 200 feet, built of wood.

The schooner John Clark, Capt. McKay, was lost on her passage from this port to Jacmel, by becoming water-logged. The Captain and four others perished on the wreck from starvation, and two men, the balance of the crew, were taken off and brought to this port, having had nothing to eat for eight days previous to their rescue.

DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, For the Cure of Consumption.

THE proprietor of this medicine was himself, many years ago, reduced so low as to be given up by his physicians and friends, in the last stage of Consumption. When all hopes of ever getting well had fled, he was strongly recommended to use a Syrup made from an old Indian receipt, which succeeded in effectually curing him. The family physicians and a large number of respectable gentlemen certified to the facts of this case, and soon the Pulmonic Syrup obtained a reputation never equalled in that section of the country. Creating, as this case did, a sensation second to that only of a miracle, Dr. Schenck was waited upon by many similarly afflicted, to whom he administered the Syrup with the same beneficial results. In fact, such was the notoriety of this medicine, that eminent physicians had their attention drawn toward the rising reputation of it, from having witnessed its curative powers, and freely extended the hand of friendship and encouragement to Dr Schenck, and introduced the medicine to the public, and used it in their daily practice

No other medicine operates upon the system in the manner that the Pulmonic Syrup does. It produces a healthy action upon the morbid parts, by purifying them from disease; it promotes the expectoration, allays the cough, ripens the matter on the lungs, and when it is discharged, it heals up quickly the breaking of the tubercles or abscess produced, and the lungs become sound and resume the performance of their natural functions, it also soothes the irritated portion of the lungs and other organs, and thus restores these parts to health. A superior property the medicine possesses over all others is, that it contains no opium, calomel, or any other deleterious medicine.

In 1841 Dr. Schenck removed from Flemington, New Jersey to Philadelphia, and commenced the practice of his profession, where he soon acquired a reputation excelled by none in curing a disease that has heretofore been deemed incurable, and he has since then daily presented to the world incontestible evidence of his success

Both of his parents died with Consumption, which appears to have been an hereditary disease with his father's family. All his brothers and sisters except one, died early of this disease, none of them, but the one brother, reaching the age of twenty.

He is left nearly the last of his family, he naturally felt some alarm, as one after another were consigned to the silent tomb by this fell destroyer.

VOLUNTARY TESTIMONY

We, the subscribers, residents of Flemington, do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Dr J. H. Schenck. He was attacked by disease, which, as we believe, terminated in Pulmonary Consumption, under the operation of which he was reduced so low as to be unable to leave his bed for a long time, and to all appearance was past recovery. He is now perfectly well—his cough and fever have left him, and we feel justified in declaring it as our belief that these salutary effects have resulted from the use of the Pulmonic Syrup.

The Most Successful Remedy.

REV. WALTER CLARKE'S

Great European Cough Remedy,

—OR—

Universal Cough Mixture,

IS unquestionably the best remedy for Coughs and Chronic Pulmonary diseases ever discovered. Read the following certificates, and remember they are all from persons of first rate respectability, and they all live in this State and are willing to answer all enquiries addressed to them—Read and judge for yourselves. They are selected from a multitude of others

From Dr John Brown, [illegible], Me

DEAR SIR—I have made use of your European Cough Remedy for a cough with which I have been afflicted for some time, to my entire satisfaction, and have also employed it in my practice with the happiest results, and am fully convinced that it is one of the best medicines in use for what it is recommended. JOHN BROWN, M. D.

Miss [illegible] HUNNEWELL, of Scarborough, had for two years and ten months been afflicted with a most distressing cough, with extreme pressure of the lungs, and other painful symptoms. During this time she had employed good physicians, and taken many of the popular advertised medicines without experiencing any permanent benefit. Many nights she was obliged to sit up for hours, not being able to breathe lying down, and her friends despaired of her recovery. Last June she was induced to try Rev. W. Clarke's Great European Cough Remedy. A trial bottle, 25 cts., greatly relieved her, and encouraged her to try a large one, 75 cts., and to the astonishment of all who knew her, these two bottles, without any other medicine whatever, completely restored her to health, which she continues to enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunnewell hold themselves ready to answer all enquiries respecting the above extraordinary cure, and are satisfied that the European Cough Mixture is the best remedy known for Coughs and disorders of the Chest and Lungs; and as such they recommend it to the afflicted.

They also state that Mr Watson, one of their neighbors, who was considered by his friends to be in consumption, was persuaded to try the European Cough Remedy, and the result was a rapid recovery.

Remarkable Cure of Phthisic, with severe Cough, communicated by Mr Brewster, Postmaster at Curtis Corner, Aug. 20th, 1853. Rev. Walter Clarke—Dear Sir Mr Samuel Shaw, residing in Greene, Kennebec county, Me., has been afflicted with the Phthisic for a number of years. For the past winter he was so distressed for breath that he could not lay down. At last hearing of the European Cough Remedy, he sent for a bottle and commenced taking it. He was greatly relieved by the first dose, and from that time he rested well at night. A few bottles completed the cure, and he now desires to recommend the medicine to others, as he is fully assured that it is worthy of the utmost confidence

The following has just been received from John Dresser, Esq., agent for Paris, Me., dated Nov. 8, 1855

Dear Sir—You will recollect that when you were here I had a severe cough of three months standing, I had tried all the cough medicines I could obtain without success. Your medicine has cured it. It has also cured many of my neighbors. Please send me some more medicine immediately.

Yours, &c., JOHN DRESSER.

Rev. T. Oliver, West Waterville, testifies to the extraordinary cure of a lady, who, to all appearance, was in the last stage of consumption, so that it was thought she could live but a short time. A single bottle cured her cough, and she speedily recovered. Bro. Oliver states that he knows another person who a long time had been afflicted with the Phthisic, with severe cough, &c., who was completely cured by two bottles of the Universal Cough Mixture.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE

Capt. Daniel Abbott, Brooklin, Maine, July 16, 1853, says, "I was taken sick one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston, S. C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in it, I sent for some immediately. This was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man.—I have not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston, and the West India Islands ever since. I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Jos. H. Hall & Co., Presque Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, April 24, 1854, say "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters. We think Mr Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs. Jos. H. Hall & Co—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 16 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed. The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle. She had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years—She feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WILLIAM CLARK.

Salmon Brook, Aroostook Co., Me.

You should bear in mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

For sale by respectable dealers and storekeepers generally—and by J. S. Ingraham, Bangor, W. B. Morrel, Dexter, H. B. Fiske, Lincoln.
